Hip To Be Square

THE INTRODUCTION The couple met in an elevator while working at a rehabilitation center several years ago. After becoming good friends over the following six months, Cheryl and Jerry went on their first date. THE PROPOSAL First and foremost, Jerry called his future father-in-law to wish him happy birthday and to ask for his permission to marry Cheryl. Three days later, following an intimate breakfast at one of their favorite restaurants, the couple took a drive up to Portuguese Bend in Palos Verdes. After walking down to the water's edge, Jerry popped the question, shocking his ecstatic bride-to-be. THE WEDDING Personal touches were incorporated throughout the ceremony and reception, while the décor concentrated on a few basic elements; square, modern, matching and elegant. Floral Design Asiel Designs Linens & Rentals Portofino Hotel and Yacht Club Invitations Creative Blu Cake Mayer's Bakery Entertainment Angelica Strings, DJs to Go Gown Hand beaded and embroidered silk satin dress by Lazaro Formalwear Tommy Hilfiger Wedding Rings Scott Kay Hair Mud Honey Salon Makeup Michele Stewart Bridal Jewelry Tacori Bridal Shoes Grazie Bridesmaid Dresses B2 Dresses Rehearsal Dinner Marmalade Café, Rolling Hills Estates Wedding Night Accommodation Portofino Hotel and Yacht Club Honeymoon Italy Gift Registries Macy's, Crate & Barrel THE NEWLYWEDS The couple resides in Pasadena and reminds future bride and grooms to pay attention to the details. There are many ways to add your personal touch and it adds that much more love on your special day.
