

Vintage Appeal

Tracina Travis and Mark Leone

Ivy Hotel, San Diego

The US Grant, San Diego

PHOTOGRAPHED BY SKYE BLU PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding Consulting by Victoria Schroeder, Coronado Weddings

Vintage Appeal

THE INTRODUCTION The couple met while working as a bartender and cocktail waitress at a restaurant in Redondo Beach. THE PROPOSAL During a local getaway to Santa Monica, the couple returned to their hotel suite where Mark had spelled out in tea light candles, "Will you Marry Me?," and placed an open ring box alongside his question. THE WEDDING The couple wanted a vintage, swanky, urban, yet classic affair. The outdoor, modern rooftop of Ivy Hotel was a perfect juxtaposition of the classic US Grant ballroom. A classic string quartet played modern music such as "Back in Black" for the groom and groomsmen's entrance and "That's Amore" for the recessional. Floral Design Botanica Rentals Classic Party Rentals Invitations Lucky Paperie Entertainment Renaldi Strings, DJ Matty A Catering & Cake The US Grant Gown A two-piece off-white satin Legends by Romona Kaveza gown with lace top, cathedral length skirt and a black satin sash, from Belle Bridal Formalwear Gentlemens Tux Club Headpieces & Veil Belle Bridal Bridal Jewelry 1950's vintage Bridal Shoes Steve Madden Mothers Dresses Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus Transportation La Costa Limousine Rehearsal Dinner Lou & Mickey's, Gaslamp Quarter, San Diego Wedding Night Accommodation The US Grant Honeymoon Italy Gift Registries Crate & Barrel, Z Gallerie, Macy's THE NEWLYWEDS The artists that started out working in restaurants now live in Los Angeles where they are both in the television and film business.