

Tara Harrison & Aaron Pottichen

Dreams Los Cabos Resort & Spa, Los Cabos, Mexico

PHOTOGRAPHED BY SUN-DANCE PHOTOGRAPHY

Over the course of five years, Tara and Aaron have shared a college campus, a picture-perfect first date, a study-abroad trip to Europe, and a beautiful home together. To top it off, Aaron took Tara by surprise and proposed to her during a weekend getaway at the luxurious beachside Hotel Del Coronado. For these two, a beachside wedding in dreamy Los Cabos, Mexico recalled all the perfect moments that the couple had shared.

DREAM DESTINATION

Invitations Eitak Design created save-the-date cards styled as passports containing travel information, invitations crafted from handmade paper and embellished with capiz shells, and Cabo San Lucas postcard RSVP inserts. Floral & Event Design

The bride's family's business, Mums the Word, helped create the elegant beach décor which included white cymbidium orchids, luxurious dupioni silk linens and a ceremony canopy constructed out of bamboo from Los Cabos and fabric and capriz-shell curtains. Catering Guests delighted in a choice of canapés while sipping on one of four cocktails, each drink representing something old, something new, something borrowed or something blue. Snow crab cakes served with avocado and tomato dressing, warm garlic shrimp over Caesar salad and beef Wellington or sea bass fillet served up dinner. Entertainment Arturo Sotomayor strummed his guitar while Tara walked down the aisle, and a DJ kept the guests dancing all night.

Videography Square Peg Productions Wedding Gown For the ceremony, Tara added a sash and a starfish brooch to her Ronald Joyce gown from The Wedding Land to match her bridesmaids and the beach theme. For the reception, she chose a beaded Henry Roth sheath from Jobyna's Bridal and made the dress a halter neckline with an open back. Bridesmaid Dresses Watters & Watters Formalwear Cubavera Honeymoon Hawaiian Cruise

DREAM DESTINATION