

THE CATCH OF A LIFETIME

Jennifer Kilgore & Robert Shamy | The Cottage at San Clemente State Beach

PHOTOGRAPHED BY MOMENTS BY MICHELLE

Wedding Consulting by Sheryal Rozzelle, Unique Elegance

It was just another day at work for Jennifer. That was, until Robert came into the restaurant where she was serving. They started chatting, and two weeks later went on their first date: fly-fishing. After over three years of dating, their enduring relationship came full circle when Robert proposed in the middle (literally) of the Provo River while the couple fly-fished. The sentimental proposal led to a beautiful outdoor wedding overlooking the Pacific Blue.

THE CATCH OF A LIFETIME

Invitations Guests received chic invitations with a chocolate overlay, a turquoise border and topped with a sparkling jewel created by Jill Parkin Designs. Floral & Event Design The simple, yet elegant ceremony highlighted the natural beauty surrounding the event. Square Root Designs brought organic touches to the positive and uplifting atmosphere.

Linens Wildflower Linen Rentals Rentals Atlas Party Rental Lighting & Entertainment Jennifer and Robert are not big dancers and actually told everyone not to expect them to dance at the wedding. However, when Soundnation played 'When You Say Nothing at All' by Allison Krauss, they decided to dance. It was an action inspired by the moment and absolutely wonderful. Wedding Gown The bride skipped the frills, wearing a simple and elegant cream-colored silk dress with a low scoop back by 2 Be. Formalwear Tommy Bahama

Honeymoon Hawaii

