Juhie Lal & Ronald Capito | Hyatt Regency, Huntington Beach

PHOTOGRAPHED BY RYAN PHILLIPS PHOTOGRAPHY

During a snorkeling trip on a secluded beach off of St. Maarten in the Caribbean, Ronald asked Juhie to spend the rest of her life with him. Juhie, of course, accepted and the two began to plan a wedding that included two ceremonies and would bring together family and friends to celebrate the union of the couple's Hindu and Catholic traditions.

Wedding Consultant An Affaire of the Heart Invitations Maroon and gold three-leaflet invitations with crystals were custom made in India. Floral & Event Design The Finishing Touch Wedding Design incorporated sunset hues that echoed the strong colors of a traditional Hindu wedding. Catering Guests enjoyed a choice of more than fifteen items from an exotic Indian menu prepared by Diamond Palace. Cake Rockwell's Creative Cakes Favors Candles from PartyLite Entertainment DJ Sound Nation played 80's hits, hip hop, pop and alternative. Videography Soft Motion Studios Transportation L.A. Party Bus Wedding Gown The bride wore two gowns. For the Catholic ceremony at St. Lorenzo Church, Juhie graced the aisle in an ivory embroidered gown from Deborah's Bridal. For the Hindu celebration, Juhie wore a traditional sari of yellow gold and green with gold crystal handiwork throughout. Bridesmaids Dresses Each dress was custom designed by Ushnak Mal from India. Formalwear Ronald and his groomsmen sported shirts from the Philippines for the Catholic ceremony and Ushnak Mal created Ronald's attire for the Hindu tradition. Honeymoon Tahiti
