

Jodi Rogers-Newton & Eric Bergstedt | Tustin Ranch Golf Club, Tustin Ranch

PHOTOGRAPHED BY JULIE WEAVER PHOTOGRAPHY

As Jodi waited in line at a cell phone store, she couldn't help but notice the attractive man standing in front of her. She left the store before him and noticed his car. Jodi checked for any evidence of a girlfriend or children and didn't see any. After figuring she had nothing to lose, she wrote a note and stuck it on his windshield. The note read, "Thought you were cute, I was the blonde standing behind you in line. I hope this is your car. Call me." Needless to say, he made the call, and the couple has been together ever since.

LOVE NOTE

Wedding Consultant Eventing with Style Invitations Black and white pocket fold invitations with engagement photo with vellum overlay Floral & Event Design The traditional ceremony at Corona Del Mar Community Church Congregational was highlighted by an abundance of white flowers with the smell of gardenias and lily hanging sweetly in the air. The reception was equally as elegant covered in white floral and silver accents designed by Bobbe Vagell's Floral Concepts. Catering Tustin Ranch Golf Club served guests a lavish menu starting with a classic Caesar salad followed by filet mignon topped with jumbo prawn and ending with chocolate dipped tuxedo strawberries. Cake The Great Dane Bakery Entertainment DJ Mark Hix and Harp Connection played the perfectly orchestrated music from all decades. Videography DV Artistry Transportation DLK Limousine Wedding Gown White silk Eve of Milady gown embellished with crystal and silver threading from Mon Amie Hair The Living Room Salon Makeup Lynn's Make-up Art Bridesmaid Dresses Jim Hjelm, Mon Amie Formalwear Hugo Boss Honeymoon Tahiti

