Before Tammy and David shared the bond of marriage, they shared a love for animals. Both veterinarians, the couple met at work four years before they actually started dating. When

David relocated halfway through Tammy's residency, the friends lost touch. It wasn't until they were reunited at an annual veterinary conference that sparks flew over a few drinks. Because they lived so far away from each other, most of the couple's initial dates took place over the phone. But those dates soon developed into something more. While vacationing in Punta Mita, Mexico, David arranged for a private dinner on the deck of their suite. A romantic proposal took place after the candlelit dinner.

Invitations She She Industries Floral & Event Design Elena Damy Flower Shop created the couple's bright and beachy wedding in Cabo San Lucas. Bright flowers and the mens' vivid orange ties accented the beautiful barefoot ceremony. Sand-colored crushed velvet linens by Wildflower Linen were a perfect complement to the beach setting, and an array of candles and luminaries reflected off the sand to produce a beautiful glow. Catering The exotic feast started with Baja lobster medallions, asparagus risotto and mango and jicama salad, and was followed by a choice of Chilean sea bass, New Zealand rack of lamb or vegetable lasagna. Instead of the traditional wedding cake, guests were treated to a dessert and coffee bar. Entertainment A festive Mariachi band spiced up the cocktail hour, while a cover band, Cabomax, played at the reception. Gifts Guests enjoyed golf, spa services, and fishing on behalf of the bride and groom as a thank you for traveling so far to share in the celebration. Wedding Gown Shear sleeves over silk bodice and flowing A-line skirt by Le Spose di Gio, at Isis Bridal Hair Pieces and Jewelry The Tiara Room Bridesmaid Dresses Laundry, at Nordstrom Formalwear Zegna, at Neiman Marcus
