Stars were aligned for Colleen and Tim. The couple shares the same exact birth date and also went to the same college. One evening while driving, Tim took a detour and stopped in front of a gorgeous fountain in the middle of Balboa Park. Wearing his impeccable suit and leather shoes, Tim walked into the water up to his knees and proclaimed, "Colleen, you make me who I am and encourage me to be me. You help me do things I would have never done before...like this!" When he climbed out of the fountain, he got down on his knee and asked Colleen to marry him. She accepted and the couple ran off to dinner where their families were waiting to share in the celebration.

Invitations Red and gold invitations with a Spanish flair by mygatsby.com set the tone for the rest of the wedding. Floral & Event Design Marcia L. Johnson helped create a passionate and bold Spanish-themed wedding to reflect Tim's Hispanic background and the couple's personalities. The tables, covered with red, cantaloupe, or spring green linens held gold chargers and red mosaic candles. Catering Craig's Extraordinary Catering served guests an elaborate meal starting with Sonora chicken in phyllo purses and peppered filet of beef with Stilton blue cheese on a baguette. Next, they had hearts of romaine with avocado, roasted peppers and pepitas, and for the main course, a split plate of blacked chicken breast with ancho chile mango salsa and grilled tri-tip of beef with black bean tomato relish. Cake Chocolate fondant with hand-piped white lace designs and a chocolate bow by Heidelberg Pastry Shop Entertainment DJ BBoy Productions Videography Ashley Video Productions Transportation White Rose Limousine Wedding Gown Strapless, ivory silk faille with hand appliqué lace by Christos Hair & Makeup Hair Comes the Bride Bridesmaid Dresses Dessy Formalwear Jonathan Martin at menssuitsnewyork.com Rehearsal Dinner Las Brisas Honeymoon New Zealand
